Prelude

Light Keeper: Sabina Jungkeit

Introit: Ring Alleluia

Old Lyme Ringers

Howard F. Starks

This Is the Day

edited by Maurice Bevan

*Hymn: #205 "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today"

*Call to Worship:

Our long journey through the darkness is over.

We have danced into the light of resurrection.

No more do we need to fear.

No more will we feel that we are alone and lost.

The Spirit of Christ lives in our hearts and our spirits.

Jesus calls us to be a source of hope and healing for others.

This is the day that the Lord has made.

Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

*Invocation

*The Lord's Prayer

Welcome and News of the Church

Special Music: Run to the Garden

Children's Choir

Brad Nix

*Unison Reading:

Love the quick profit, the annual raise, vacation with pay.

Want more of everything ready-made. Be afraid to know your neighbors and to die.
And you will have a window in your head. Not even your future will be a mystery any more. Your mind will be punched in a card and shut away in a little drawer.

When they want you to buy something they will call you. When they want you to die for profit they will let you know. So, friends, every day do something that won't compute. Love the Lord. Love the world. Work for nothing. Take all that you have and be poor. Love someone who does not deserve it. Give your approval to all you cannot understand. Praise ignorance, for what man has not encountered he has not destroyed. As soon as the generals and the politicians can predict the motions of your mind, lose it. Leave it as a sign to mark the false trail, the way you didn't go. Be like the fox who makes more tracks than necessary, some in the wrong direction.

Practice resurrection.

-Wendell Berry, The Mad Farmer Liberation Front

*Gloria Patri (#36 in black hymnal)

Scripture: John 20: 1-10 (NT, pg. 109)

I Corinthians 1: 18-21, 26-31 (NT, pg. 156)

*Hymn: #210 “Crown Him with Many Crowns”

Pastoral Prayer

Pastoral Prayer Response: Come and Fill Our Hearts

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'Come and Fill Our Hearts'. It consists of two systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are: 'Come and fill our hearts with your peace. You a-lone, O Lord, are ho-ly.' and 'Come and fill our hearts with your peace, al-le-lu-ia!'. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand.

Offertory Sentence

Offertory Anthem: Come, ye Faithful

R.S. Thatcher

Praise God, all creatures here below;

We thank you for worshipping with us. Following the life and teachings of Jesus, we are a church that strives to be a place of grace, welcoming all regardless of theological expression, age, race, gender, sexual identity, national origin or financial means. In our Church Constitution we recognize that "each member shall have the undisturbed right to follow the word of God according to the dictates of his or her own conscience, under the enlightenment of the Holy Spirit." The First Congregational Church of Old Lyme, established in 1665, cherishes this proud Pilgrim tradition. We are honored by your presence among us, and we invite you to help us become what we endeavor to be.

This year we will once again dedicate our Easter offering to the work of One Great Hour of Sharing, a fund collected and dispersed through the United Church of Christ. This fund can be accessed for any emergencies world-wide, such as relief in times of natural disaster or critical health or social crises. Last year we received word from the UCC that, in terms of the OGHS collection, we were among the 100 most generous churches in the nation! That is a testimony to the generosity of our congregation, and a real honor. We have set our goal for the 2018 collection at $10,000 once again.

Please help as much as you are able.

Adult Forums There is no adult forum today. The forums will resume next Sunday when the speaker will be Carl Hobert who will discuss his work on conflict resolution and management in post-genocidal Rwanda.

Bible Study In April we will continue our study of the book of Psalms. The Psalms are a collection of prayers and songs composed through Israel's history from the time of David to the post-exilic period (roughly 1000 to 500 BCE). We will study the different Psalm types and their historical significance and meaning. We will also spend time exploring how they are helpful in our lives today. Led by Becky Crosby. Bring your Bible, but if you don't have one, we have one for you! All are welcome! Classes are scheduled in the Library at 10:45 am for April 18, and May 9, 16, 23. Bible Study will resume in September.

Book Group Robin Diangelo's new book, White Fragility. Join us in the Hoag Parlor on Tuesday, April 30th at 10:30 am. White Fragility is a non-fiction book which addresses the role and dimensions of white privilege and racism in our society. Join us as we learn together how to develop racial awareness and challenge our own assumptions.

LBS May Luncheon Please join us for a delicious May Luncheon orchestrated by gourmet cook and LBS stalwart, Nathalie Fogg, at NOON on May 14 (always second Tuesday of the month). A program follows the Luncheon, featuring Barbara Rayel who demonstrates how to create arrangements from the flowers suddenly appearing in your yards and all around us. Four of her arrangements will be raffled off. The cost is $5 with a contribution of canned goods or a gently used dish towel. (Our kitchen towels are a bit worn these days.) The Ladies Who Stitch will display their creations with us so you may enjoy perusing their crafts, including flowery projects destined for Haiti. Be a flower and not just a roadside weed, dazzled only by the whiz of traffic passing you by! Join us, women AND men; all are welcome. Just please, please make reservations by calling the church office at 860-434-8686 so that Nathalie and her team know how much food to prepare.

June 22nd - June 29th / Cheyenne River Reservation, SD / Join us! Contact Stephanie Kenny at stephaniekenney@gmail.com for more information.

FCCOL has been featured as the subject of a national podcast, entitled "Beliefs."

Hosted by Dr. William Baker of Fordham University, it is a weekly exploration of the ways religion shapes our public life. The podcast episode, "350 Years of Easter in New England: Ancient Worship in a Young Country," can be found at <https://religionnews.com/beliefs>.

Everyone is invited to attend "Yoga and Meditation for Peace" a special class being offered by Alison Ritrovato on Sunday, April 28, at 2:00 p.m., in Fellowship Hall. This yoga class is for people of all ages and skill levels, and will focus on meditations and easy yoga movements. There is no charge for this class, but donations are welcome during a free will offering. Please bring a towel to the class, and a yoga mat if you have one. Light refreshments will be provided. All proceeds will go towards funding the church's Immigrant Assistance Committee Fund. Please contact Lina Tuck (lina.tuck@gmail.com) or 860-680-8825.

Ladies Who Stitch Again this year we are collecting girls' and boys' underpants, new and all sizes, to accompany the clothing we have made that will go to Haiti to support the Crosby Fund for Haitian Education. Donations can be left on the back cabinets in the Sheffield Auditorium. Thank you to everyone who supported our endeavors during last Sunday's coffee hours and Tuesday's LBS luncheon. Our next big sales events will be May 12, 14, and 19. However we encourage you to continue shopping with us during our 10:00 - 2:00 Monday work hours.
