We thank you for worshipping with us. Following the life and teachings of Jesus, we are a church that strives to be a place of grace, welcoming all regardless of theological expression, age, race, gender, sexual identity, national origin or financial means. In our Church Constitution we recognize that “each member shall have the undisturbed right to follow the word of God according to the dictates of his or her own conscience, under the enlightenment of the Holy Spirit.” The First Congregational Church of Old Lyme, established in 1665, cherishes this proud Pilgrim tradition. We are honored by your presence among us, and we invite you to help us become what we endeavor to be.

The flowers this morning are given by Tammy Algar & Family in loving memory of Joseph Brennan.

The hosts for fellowship hour are the Paul and Jean Kilbride family.

The deacon on duty is Julie Martel.

Childcare is available every Sunday morning in the nursery downstairs at the 9AM service.

If you need help finding it, please ask the ushers to assist you.

If you are visiting us for worship this morning, we welcome you, and invite you to join us in Fellowship Hall for fellowship and refreshments.

We invite you to pick up a “Welcome” packet, which can be found in the vestibule.

We hope this information will be helpful in acquainting you with our church and its activities and programs.

Quiet Activity Bags for young children are in the vestibule.

They are colorful bags with quiet projects for our youngest members.

Please feel free to offer these bags to your children.

The Rev. David W. Good serves as our Minister Emeritus.

Refugee Resettlement Project Update Hani Hamou, the energetic father in our Syrian refugee family, is eager to move from his present work as dishwasher into full-time employment that would better help him support his family. Hani has outstanding past experience as a distributor/deliveryman in Turkey and as assistant head waiter in a high-end restaurant in Syria, though he is open to other forms of work. We are currently helping Hani launch his job search and would appreciate hearing from anyone in our three co-sponsoring churches with ties to a business, or who might be able to make a referral to one, that could lead to a job interview for this highly motivated, hard-working man. We are in special need of Large and X- Large Men's heavy warm athletic socks.

FCCOL New Website In the New Year, we will be launching a new look for our website. The new design will feature larger type, a lot more pictures and videos, and be easier to use on smartphones, tablets and laptops. All the sections you know and love will still be here – our sermons, calendars, bulletins and newsletters. The new design is part of our ongoing effort to engage with our congregation more meaningfully online, and to attract new members to our congregation who can help us carry on Christ's work. Look for our new look in the New Year!

Finding Happiness!

*I don't know what our destiny will be, but one thing I do know:
the only ones among us who will really be happy are those who have sought and found how to serve."*

--Albert Schweitzer

As of three days ago, our Stewardship Campaign stands at $490,776, or only 78% of our goal of $630,000. To help reach our goal, we need those of you who have not yet renewed your commitments to "step in" and "step up" if you can!

The second Stewardship letter will go out this week to those who have not yet made their campaign commitment. If you are among the 250 generous members and friends who have returned their response cards to date, we extend our heartiest thanks.

If you have not yet responded, please help us "catch up" by returning your response card to the church office at your earliest convenience so the trustees and church treasurer will know what resources they have available to serve our members and community in 2017. Your commitment matters, and will bring happiness - to you and to those you support!

With gratitude for all you do,

The Board of Stewardship: Barbara Smith (Chair), Emily Fisher, Wendy Knight, Mike Long, Sandy Long, Chuck Lynch, Wayne Mountz, Paul Stigliano, Matt Winkler
