Prelude

*Processional Hymn: #108 "Come, Christians, Join to Sing"

*Call to Worship (from Psalm 146)

Praise the Lord, O my soul. We will sing praise to God for as long as we live.

Put not your trust in earthly rulers, in whom there is no help.

When their breath departs, they return to the earth.

Happy are those whose help is the God of our ancestors, who made heaven and earth;
who executes justice for the oppressed, who gives food to the hungry.

The Lord sets the prisoners free. He opens the eye of the blind.

God lifts up those who are bowed down.

The Lord will reign forever, Your God, for all generations.

Let us worship God.

*Congregation Standing

We thank you for worshipping with us. Following the life and teachings of Jesus, we are a church that strives to be a place of grace, welcoming all regardless of theological expression, age, race, gender, sexual identity, national origin or financial means. In our Church Constitution we recognize that “each member shall have the undisturbed right to follow the word of God according to the dictates of his or her own conscience, under the enlightenment of the Holy Spirit.” The First Congregational Church of Old Lyme, established in 1665, cherishes this proud Pilgrim tradition. We are honored by your presence among us, and we invite you to help us become what we endeavor to be.

The flowers this morning are given by the children of Phil and Judy Simmons in loving memory of their father Phil Simmons.

The hosts for fellowship hour are Janet Velsmid, Jerome Doherty, Marcy Conway and Cathy Mathis in honor of Margaret Smith’s 90th birthday on November 1st.

The deacon on duty is Julie Martel.

*Childcare is available every Sunday morning in the nursery downstairs at the 9 AM service.
If you need help finding it, please ask the ushers to assist you.*

*If you are visiting us for worship this morning, we welcome you, and invite you

We invite you to pick up a “Welcome” packet, which can be found in the vestibule.

We hope this information will be helpful in acquainting you with our church and its activities and programs.

Growing Through Grief Group, Friday, November 3, 10:00 a.m. in the Hoag Parlor Henri Nouwen wrote, A caring relationship is a “deep human encounter in which a person is willing to put their own faith and doubt, their own hope and despair, their own light and darkness at the disposal of others who want to find a way through their confusion and touch the solid core of life.” Come join our Growing Through Grief and Loss Group, new members are always welcome. Our next meeting will be Friday, November 3, at 10:00 a.m. in the Hoag Parlor. If you would like to meet one-on-one or have any questions, feel free to contact the Rev. Joan Priest, 860-434-4629.

Care-Givers Support Group, Friday, November 10, 10:00 a.m. in the Hoag Parlor “Being a listening friend is like being someone’s human journal. The journal accepts every word that you write, unconditionally. A journal gives you the opportunity to vent without being criticized.” (Terri Green) One of the most important ways to be a healthy caregiver is to take time for yourself and seek support of people who can relate to your situation. Come join our group of “listening friends”. New members are always welcome in our Care-givers Support Group. Our next meeting will be Friday, November 10, at 10:00 a.m. in the Hoag Parlor. If you would like to meet one-on-one or have any questions, feel free to contact the Rev. Joan Priest, 860-434-4629.

Help Wanted to Count Sunday Offering Volunteer are needed to join teams of offering counters. Each team usually meets once a month to count and process the Sunday offering. On special occasions, such as Christmas and Easter, additional volunteers are needed to augment the assigned team to ease the additional burden. To volunteer your time to support this important function of the Church, please contact Allan Kiem, the Financial Secretary, by e-mail, at Kiem36@live.com; or phone at 860-434-5216.
