No Child Behind Bars: Living Resistance from the US to Palestine
Wednesday February 1st at 7:00 pm
Yale University Sudler Hall in
William L. Harkness Hall on Cross Campus New Haven

Combining grassroots community engagement with municipal boycotts, community actions, testimony, and education campaigns, “No Child Behind Bars: Living Resistance from the US to Palestine”, addresses state violence across its many faces, but it particularly intersects at the criminalization and detention of youth in Palestine and the U.S. The event focuses on the interests and powers that reinforce these systems, with the goal of destabilizing them and breaking them down.

Ahed Tamimi is a 15-year-old Palestinian, charismatic, and articulate. She will be sharing her story from her home in Nabi Saleh, Occupied West Bank, as her visa for this tour was denied. Amanda Weatherspoon, a Unitarian Universalist minister whose ministry is centered on collective liberation and cross-movement solidarity between oppressed peoples, will join us in person. These powerful women will identify the connection between state-sponsored violence and the criminalization and incarceration of youth in the United States and Palestine. Nadya Tannous, a writer and organizer in the San Francisco Bay Area who has researched the detention of Palestinian minors since 2013, will provide additional insight into the realities Palestinian minors face within the Israeli detention system. For more information contact Mary Tomasseti at 860-391-5384.

New Look for Our Website in January When people look for a church to join, they aren't looking for a building so much as they're looking for a community they can be a part of. We are a community of people of faith striving to live up to the example of Christ's life and teachings. We are a community that cares about the world we live in – whether it's right outside our door or half a world away. The new website will show our congregation in action, serving others – with lots of pictures and videos, and larger type. People will be able to see – not just read about – how we open our arms and our hearts to people in need. They will see how we help care for – and join in fellowship with – people of diverse faiths across the country and around the globe. It is our hope, too, that they will see their new home.

Honest Conversations with Muslim Neighbors Saturday, February 18th, 3:00 pm at the Berlin Mosque Who are our Muslim neighbors? What do they believe? How do extremist actions worldwide affect them? Hear greater-Hartford-area Muslims share their stories, and respond to questions. Together, in conversation, we can promote a more peaceful world for everyone. Carpool if you can. We will leave the church at 2:00 pm.

A SMALL GROUP OF THOUGHTFUL CITIZENS

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful citizens can change the world.
Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has."

--Margaret Mead

On this day of our church's Annual Meeting, we give thanks, and offer a note of hope:

We offer our heartfelt thanks to the 354 of you who have returned your commitment cards to the church. Your gifts will be used in support of the Stewardship campaign, that supplies over four-fifths of the funding for our church's life-changing ministries.

We express our fervent hope, if you have not yet returned your commitment card, that you will join this noble cause by mailing it in or calling the church office (860-434-8686) with your intention. Please be assured that whatever you can contribute will be deeply appreciated.

With our gratitude for your for your generosity - of time, talent, and resources,
