We thank all our musicians: Dr. Michael White (clarinet); Gregg Stafford (trumpet and vocals); Detroit Brooks (banjo); Kerry Lewis (upright bass). Also, our own Director of Music, Simon Holt. And we thank our Deacons for their participation in today's service.

Please join us at 4:30 back here at the Meetinghouse. We're screening City of a Million Dreams, a film about the black funeral traditions of New Orleans and how people have learned to mourn and celebrate life all at the same time. Following the film, there's a live Zoom discussion with Jason Berry.

Join us as well on Sunday morning at 10AM for a jazz worship service featuring Dr. Michael White and his jazz ensemble.
