God has told us what is good.
What does the Lord require but to do justice,
to love kindness, and to walk humbly with God?
It is good to be together,
listening for the voice of God, united by the Spirit.
In this time of worship
may we open ourselves to God's kin(g)dom of kindness
so that we may actively seek it.
We want to walk with you, humbly, closely, daily.
Let us worship God.

Pastoral Prayer

Pastoral Prayer Response: Come and Fill Our Hearts

The image shows a musical score for a pastoral prayer response. It consists of four staves of music. The first two staves are for the first line of lyrics, and the last two staves are for the second line. The music is written in a 3/4 time signature with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are: "Come and fill our hearts with your peace. You a-lone, O Lord, are ho-ly." and "Come and fill our hearts with your peace, al-le-lu-ia!". The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a focus on the lyrics.

Scripture Lessons: Psalm 85 (New King James Version)

Sermon: The Past is Present

Tom DeWolf

*Hymn: #504 "God of Justice, God of Mercy"

Benediction Response: God be in my head

John Rutter

Postlude

Congregation Standing*

We thank you for worshipping with us. Following the life and teachings of Jesus, we are a church that strives to be a place of grace, welcoming all regardless of theological expression, age, race, gender, sexual identity, national origin or financial means. In our Church Constitution we recognize that "each member shall have the undisturbed right to follow the word of God according to the dictates of his or her own conscience, under the enlightenment of the Holy Spirit." The First Congregational Church of Old Lyme, established in 1665, cherishes this proud Pilgrim tradition. We are honored by your presence among us, and we invite you to help us become what we endeavor to be.

We are pleased to welcome Tom DeWolf, our guest preacher for this morning's service. DeWolf is the author of the 2008 book, Inheriting the Trade, the story of his participation in the Emmy-nominated PBS documentary, "Traces of the Trade: A Story from the Deep North." He leads a workshop on racial justice and healing called "Coming to the Table: Beyond the Legacy of Enslavement."

Receive Ukrainian Refugees: Under United for Ukraine, individuals can apply to host refugees in their homes. Applicants must demonstrate the ability to financially support an individual or family fleeing Ukraine. And there are safety and vetting processes at both ends of the application - for US hosts, and for Ukrainians - in order to prevent abuse and exploitation. If you're interested in learning more, or applying, visit the website: <https://www.uscis.gov/humanitarian/uniting-for-ukraine>.

WES: Our first White Elephant Sale in 3 years is happening this year! And we need help, starting on June 23. To learn about how or when to volunteer, please call 860-434-8686, option 5.
