SUNDAY WORSHIP

10:00 AM

Prelude

Introit: “Peace Be with You”

by Eugene Butler (1935-2024)

*Processional Hymn: #250 “Here in This Place”

*Call to Worship:

We quiet our minds and our hearts in this time of uncertainty,
full of unknowns, as worry presses down upon us.

We come to this Meetinghouse in order to ignite a flame that connects us with those we love, cutting through the darkness of isolation;

We are warmed by the fires of our ongoing interconnection.

For this moment, we find a certainty within the knowable bonds of love and community.

We are not alone. We are held in the embrace of a love that is greater than us all.

Let us worship God!

*Prayer of Invocation and The Lord’s Prayer

Welcome and Announcements

*Hymn: #223 “Gracious Spirit, Dwell With Me”

Children’s Message

Children’s Song: # 364 “This Little Light of Mine”

(Children and youth proceed downstairs. Congregation remains seated)

Offering Invitation

Offertory Anthem: “Hymns of Glory, Songs of Praise” by Eugene Butler (1935-2024)

*Doxology: Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God for all that love has done;
Creator, Christ, and Spirit, One. Amen.

*Offering Prayer

Pastoral Prayer

Pastoral Prayer Response: “Hear Our Prayer”

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (indicated by a G with a sharp sign) and common time (indicated by a 'C'). The top staff consists of two measures. The first measure contains a dotted half note followed by a quarter note, then a half note, then a quarter note, then a half note, then a quarter note, then a half note, then a quarter note. The second measure contains a dotted half note followed by a quarter note, then a half note, then a quarter note, then a half note, then a quarter note. The lyrics 'Hear our prayer, O God, hear our prayer, O God; in -' are written below the notes. The bottom staff consists of two measures. Postlude

*Congregation Standing

We thank you for worshipping with us. Following the life and teachings of Jesus, we are a church that strives to be a place of grace, welcoming all regardless of theological expression, age, race, gender, sexual identity, national origin or financial means. In our Church Constitution we recognize that “each member shall have the undisturbed right to follow the word of God according to the dictates of his, her or their own conscience, under the enlightenment of the Holy Spirit.” The First Congregational Church of Old Lyme, established in 1665, cherishes this proud Pilgrim tradition. We are honored by your presence among us, and we invite you to help us become what we endeavor to be.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 1: 1-3

Happy are those who do not follow the advice of the wicked
or take the path that sinners tread
 or sit in the seat of scoffers,
but their delight is in the law of the Lord,
 and on his law they meditate day and night.

They are like trees
 planted by streams of water,
which yield their fruit in its season,
 and their leaves do not wither.
In all that they do, they prosper.

Exodus 20: 1-21

Then God spoke all these words,

“I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me.

“You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above or that is on the earth beneath or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.

“You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

“Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and consecrated it.

“Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

“You shall not murder.

“You shall not commit adultery.

“You shall not steal.

“You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

“You shall not covet your neighbor’s house; you shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, male or female slave, ox, donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.”

When all the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking, they were afraid and trembled and stood at a distance and said to Moses, “You speak to us, and we will listen, but do not let God speak to us, lest we die.” Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid, for God has come only to test you and to put the fear of him upon you so that you do not sin.” Then the people stood at a distance, while Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.

Choir Anthems

Introit: “Peace Be with You”

by Eugene Butler (1935-2024)

I rejoiced when they said unto me, "Let us go up to the house of God!" Our feet are standing within your gates, a house built on peace and love. Peace be with you my friends, sisters and brothers in the Lord. And for the sake of the house of God, I will seek your good. The house of God is firmly built; it firm and strong does stand. Unto that place all peoples go, pilgrims of every race and land.

Peace be with you my friends, sisters and brothers in the Lord. And for the sake of the house of God, I will seek your good. Therefore I pray that peace may still within your walls remain, and for all people of the world love and peace retain. Peace be with you my friends, sisters and brothers in the Lord. And for the sake of the house of God, I will seek your good.

Offertory Anthem: “Hymns of Glory, Songs of Praise”

by Eugene Butler (1935-2024)

Hymns of glory, songs of praise, blessed Father to You we raise. Jesus, glory unto you with the spirit ever true. Songs of praise the angels sang, heaven with alleluias rang, when creation was begun, when God spoke and it was done. Songs of praise awoke the morn when the Prince of Peace was born. Songs of Praise arose when He conquered death in victory. Heaven and earth shall pass away, songs of praise shall crown that day, God will make new heaven and earth, songs of praise shall hail their birth. Hymns of glory, songs of praise, blessed Father to You we raise. Jesus, glory unto you with the spirit ever true. Amen.

The flowers this morning are given by Sandy D'Esopo in loving memory of his wife Cheryl.

The hosts for the Fellowship hour this morning are Susan and Wayne Mountz.

The nursery is open today.

If you would like to contribute flowers for our communion table, please call Jill Harned at 603-398-9004 to reserve a date. Thank you.

Faith-Based Community Organizing in Southeastern CT: Sunday, October 19th

For the past year, five members of FCCOL have been meeting with other congregations across Southeast Connecticut (SE CT) to learn a form of faith-based community organizing that is grounded in relationship building and storytelling. To learn more about this exciting initiative, hear from Rev. Bill White, Simsbury UCC, on how they're doing it in Hartford, and meet Ms. Amber Moye, the new SE CT community organizer. Come to our Sunday, Oct. 19 Adult Forum. Grab some coffee after church and join us!

The First Congregational Church of Old Lyme

2026 Stewardship Campaign

To paraphrase that old favorite hymn, WE love to tell the story of this church! Why?

We welcome everyone, including those of every race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender expression, economic circumstance and faith background into the full life of our church.

We encourage each person to grow on their own journey of faith according to their own conscience.

We have six vibrant ministries of Worship, Christian Education, Music, Pastoral Care, Community Support and Mission Outreach.

We are committed to social justice both here and around the world.

We nurture mutually enriching partnerships with Native Americans, the people of Haiti, Palestine and the churches of South Africa.

We actively support immigrants in need.

We minister to the local community supporting the Homeless Hospitality Center, the Community Meal Center, the Shoreline Soup Kitchens and Pantries, and more ...

We have a benevolence giving budget that extends our ministries locally and worldwide.

And our story continues to inspire. Is it any wonder we love telling it?

Sustaining this story needs the financial support of all our members and friends. Your support accounts for over 75% of our annual needs.

We are grateful for all your generous support.
